

Acacia Slaton

Author, Speaker, Counselor and Encourager

Acacia is passionate about her faith in Jesus Christ. Her faith has endured the test of times as she has continued to pursue God despite the obstacles and challenges she's encountered throughout her life. Acacia's journey of faith began at the age of 15 years old when she encountered a demonic attack (medical doctors diagnosed as schizophrenia) that caused her to search outside of herself and doctors and look to Jesus for healing and restoration. Although, she claimed and received healing in this area of her life it doesn't mean her faith was not tested and met with challenges. As she boldly began to proclaim and testify of God's healing power in her life counterattacks ensued. By the time she was 28 years old she had had 3 1/2 nervous breakdowns (half because it was the only time she didn't require hospitalization). At the age of 35, Acacia's spouse of six years left her to pursue a same sex relationship. Acacia was shell-shocked, her faith and confidence was momentarily eroded but she waxed stronger in her faith in Jesus Christ as it was during these difficult and dark times that God's presence and grace enabled her to persevere and have an overcoming faith. Acacia is confident that the best days of her life and ministry are just ahead; it's not over until God says it's over! Acacia loves to share many of the supernatural encounters (that are applicable to the Body of Christ) God revealed to her during these fierce demonic attacks and comfort others as the Lord has comforted her.

Professionally Acacia has a bachelor's degree in Psychology and a Master of Arts degree in counseling. Her several years of working in the counseling field has equipped her to emphatically work with a diversity of people on personal problems and difficulties. She is an author of eight books and counting. She also serves in the children's ministry and is a leader over the singles ministry at Resurrection House For All Nations.

Acacia's charismatic personality will ignite a passion in believers to persevere in their walk with Christ and to fight the good fight of faith. She is excited about the opportunity to encourage others in their faith during seemingly insurmountable odds. Acacia is excited about being a speaker at your next women's ministry meeting, church, Youth or Single's event.

About The Lord Says "Live!" Ministries...

"And when I passed by you and saw you wallowing in your blood, I said to you in your blood, 'Live!' I said to you in your blood, 'Live!'" (Ezekiel 16:6, ESV)

An awakening is taking place in the Body of Christ as God is doing a shifting and aligning us with His will for our lives. This shifting has made us feel uncomfortable and out of place but that's the intended purpose for us to no longer feel comfortable doing business as usual but to come up a step higher, a new level and dimension in Christ. We are a people who may have been forsaken and forgotten for a season but the Lord is calling us out of the filthiness of sins and old habits that have kept us bound and hindered us from His best. It doesn't matter where you come from or what you've been through – your sins, past hang ups, and mistakes have been washed in His blood. You are no longer stained by the blood of guilt, shame and self-condemnation; He makes all things new! You are forgiven, redeemed, transformed and have been made righteous and justified by faith in His blood. Arise and live anew in Him. The Lord says, "Live!"

Forgiveness Begins at the Cross

No matter the hurt and betrayal of your past you can forgive and move forward in Christ. It's only when we mourn that we're comforted. Yet, many of us fail to realize God is near to the broken hearted and He desires for us to draw daily from His grace. Acacia's heartfelt message about God's love and forgiveness exemplified at the cross will help the listener to no longer allow bitterness to be their portion and allow the redemption of calvary's gift to saturate their heart and mind.

God Will Remove Your Reproach

There isn't anyone who hasn't suffered some setback that's brought agony and pain. Yet, some of us are still allowing trauma to speak louder than God's redemptive power in our lives. Acacia was ostracized by some of her college peers due to having two public nervous breakdowns on the campus of Oral Roberts University. Additionally, she suffered the shame of having her spouse divorce her to pursue a same sex relationship. Despite these setbacks Acacia has soared beyond her storms and is victorious in Christ Jesus! Acacia's message will incite the listener to know that Christ resurrection power still restores and heals and they can overcome any challenge and experience God's best for their lives.

Now is the Time for Salvation

We often take God's grace for granted and believe time is on our side. Yet, for many death has taken them by surprise and they were regrettably unprepared for eternity. Acacia had a miraculous heavenly encounter at 16 years old that sealed her faith and salvation in Jesus Christ. Her experience will cause unbelievers to desire to have a personal relationship with Christ and it will make Christians stronger in their faith. Listeners will never view Christianity the same and will desire to live a life of surrender in order to fulfill the purpose of God for their lives.

Spring Forth into Your God Given Destiny

Are you allowing your past to define you? Are you crippled and feel you can't move past the shame of your past? God promises us that we can have a much better future in Him yet the injustices of our past often appear more real and speak louder. For many years Acacia allowed the stigma of mental illness to cause her to feel inadequate and incapable of being used by God. She is no longer a prisoner of her past. She is enabled and equipped by God's Resurrection power to proclaim liberty and freedom to those who are bound. Listeners will be convinced that despite life's challenges they can come into wholeness and spring forth into their God given destiny.

What Was Meant to Derail You Will Bring You Into Your Purpose

There isn't anything that has happened or will happen in our lives that will ever take God by surprise. Most importantly, His plan and purpose is not aborted because we get off course. The very trial you think is your end can actually be your beginning and lead to your greatest breakthrough in Christ Jesus. Don't allow life's circumstances to derail you! Acacia's message and experiences will inspire and encourage the listeners to know that it isn't over until God says it's over!

“Acacia was such an inspirational speaker at the monthly women's meeting. She brought an insightful and refreshing message to our monthly ladies luncheon. I thank God for what He is doing in her and through her.”
